The Heartbeat of the Home

Cynthia Ruchti tells stories hemmed-in-hope, drawing from 33 years writing and producing the radio broadcast "The Heartbeat of the Home," which was heard in this area over WGNV, 88.5 The Family, and on 48 stations across the country. The broadcast retired in 2012, but Cynthia is taking that same form of encouragement and hope-giving to reading audiences through award-winning fiction, nonfiction, and devotionals. She's currently working on book number 20, but she doesn't do math. Cynthia and her grade-school sweetheart husband of 44 plus years of marriage live in the heart of Wisconsin, not far from their three children and five (to-date) grandchildren. cynthiaruchti.com.
